

BE PREPARED:

EMERGENCY ACTION PLANNING for business

October 29th

Plan to Save Lives

In a changing world, no one can predict what might happen next but with education and training, organizations can take steps to reduce the risk of casualties. Learn how to plan for the following events:

- Active Shooters
- Bomb Threats
- Fires
- Natural Disasters

About the Presenter:

Orvel Ronk educates and trains organizations on how to reduce the risk of violence and active shooter incidents. Prior to founding Ronk Security Solutions, Orvel worked as a civilian in the Nation's Capital for the Department of Defense, specializing in anti-terrorism, physical security, risk management, facility/security assessments and security planning, as well as active shooter mitigation, response and scenario training, after serving 20 years in the Marine Corps.
